

MIKADO ANGRY AT THE DELAY

Thinks Port Arthur Should Have Been Captured Long Ago...Wants More Haste.

CZAR ORDERS SHIPS TO DISARM

International Dispute at Shanghai Is Now a Thing of the Past--Two Boats Will Be Out of Commission.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Shanghai, Aug. 25.—By direct order of the czar, conveyed earlier in the evening to Admiral Retsenstien, the disarmament of the Russian cruiser Askold and torpedo destroyer Grozovoi was begun shortly after 7 o'clock last night. The work will be pushed without interruption until completed. Immediately after the receipt of the order Admiral Retsenstien commanded the flags of the two warships lowered.

United States Consul General Goodnow and the representatives of the foreign governments, as well as the Chinese Taotai, were informed of the czar's decision without delay, and it is more than likely that now the breach of international law caused by the failure to disarm the vessels on or before August 23 will not be taken advantage of by the Japanese as a part of the protest relative to Russia's tactics, which, according to advices from Tokyo, some of the Japanese statesmen desire to have presented to the powers.

Great Relief Is Felt
Great relief is felt in commercial and shipping circles at Shanghai over this happy termination of the affair, as the Americans having cargoes on the wharves near the mooring place of the Askold have been very urgent in their demands for protection which, in fact, had already been communicated by Mr. Goodnow to Rear Admiral Stirling, commanding the American squadron.

The British merchants, however, on the other hand, while no less jubilant over the czar's order, are inclined to ascribe it to the position taken by the British press and the likelihood of its protests having been heeded by the government.

May Change Naval Tactics
The impression prevails here that the czar's order in the Askold case will be followed by a complete change of tactics in other matters pertaining to Russia's naval warfare. The time is past, it is believed, when Russia could hope to gain anything by violating the principles of international law and by resorting to means which, in the end, would have bound either to precipitate an international clash or to result in a tacit agreement that, in order to avoid such a conflict, Russia be permitted to do as she pleased.

Whether the czar's change of heart has been brought about by a realization of his manifest duty to confine the region of hostilities to the narrowest space possible, or by fear of the possible consequence of further defiance, is, of course, not yet within the legitimate sphere of speculation.

Must Disarm
London, Aug. 25.—According to the Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent, the Russian government supports the refusal of the Askold and Grozovoi, either to disarm or to treat China as a power capable of enforcing neutrality. The Japanese minister at Peking and the Taotai at Shanghai are co-operating in urgent representations which, it is hoped, will be effective. "Japan," declared the legation, "will not consent to a partial disarmament, as in the case of the Ryesshot incident at Chefoo. The Russian ships must either completely disarm, or fight."

Many Thousands
Chefoo, Aug. 25.—Thirty-five thousand Japanese and at least 10,000 Russians have fallen during the siege of Port Arthur. This is the latest report brought to Chefoo from the beleaguered city by refugees who tell of the last four days.

Entire battalions of the Japanese army have been sacrificed in an attempt to hold new positions. The men have fought with almost fanatical bravery to accomplish the military desire and bring about the fall of Port Arthur. The guards division has suffered the heaviest losses, as it has been given the brunt of the attacking positions. The Russian casualties in the last three days have been large, and the total to date are said to exceed 10,000. In addition thousands are too sick to fight. Over 5,000 shells have been thrown into the city since Thursday morning, and not a building is undamaged.

Lodged Complaint
London, Aug. 25.—The captain of the British steamer Comedian has lodged a process at Durban, South Africa, against the action of the Russian auxiliary cruiser Smolensk. In stopping the steamer and examining its papers on Sunday last off the southeast coast of Cape Colony, the foreign office has ordered the British officials at Durban, Natal, to make a complete report of the circumstances connected with the reported examination of the papers of the Comedian. If the report should confirm that the Smolensk was the vessel which made the examination then a vigorous protest will be made.

through Ambassador Hardinge.

Much Interest

St. Petersburg, Aug. 25.—Interest in the fate of the Askold and the Grozovoi runs high. The Novoye Vremya says: "We are going to witness another tragedy such as that of the Variaz and Korietz at Chemulpo with the powers, looking on calmly."

The Novosti says: "Continued violation of neutrality laws in the Chinese ports by the Japanese will compel Russia to regard the Chinese empire, or at least part thereof, as being within the sphere of active hostilities."

China lacks either the power of the inclination to prevent Japanese incursions. The warships of neutral powers idly watch these violations. There fore, the agreement as to China's neutrality made at the beginning of the war, becomes a dead letter and Russia must ignore it in self-defense."

Silenced Forts

Chefoo, Aug. 25.—Information of good authenticity states that the Japanese armored cruisers Nishin and Kashuga have bombarded and silenced the Russian forts east of Golden Hill, at the entrance of Port Arthur. The forts referred to are probably the same or very close to Forts Tainpangze and Chaochanko.

Mikado Displeased
London, Aug. 25.—Tokyo correspondents announce that the Mikado displeased at the delay in capturing Port Arthur, has recalled General Nogi and has ordered Field Marshal Marquis Yamagata, chief of the general staff at Tokyo, to assume in full person full command of the besieging army before Port Arthur. It is asserted that Marquis Yamagata has explicit instructions to bring about the reduction of the fortress without delay and at any cost.

Ready for Fight

Shanghai, Aug. 25.—News of a movement which is taken to mean that General Kuroki is preparing to make an attack on Liaoyang has reached here. It is the effect that the Japanese column which has been operating toward Mukden has retraced its steps and has joined General Kuroki's main column to the northeast of Liaoyang. This way be due to the spirit of aggressiveness shown recently by the Russians.

It has been learned that the southern Japanese army has been greatly weakened by the withdrawal of troops for service at Port Arthur, and Russian columns of considerable strength have been operating to the south of An-Shan-Chan. They have been in touch with the Japanese several times, but as yet no serious engagements have been fought. The roads are still in fearful condition, and the movement of troops in considerable bodies is attended by difficulties which are almost insurmountable.

Russians Ready

St. Petersburg, Aug. 25.—A telegram today from Kuroki dated at Liaoyang states he is now ready to begin offensive operations against the Japanese.

Sees Vessels

Tokyo, Aug. 25.—A later report says both the Russian torpedo boat destroyers which struck the mines off Port Arthur Wednesday night were sunk.

Las Palmas, Canary Islands, Aug. 25.—Fishermen who just arrived report they saw three Russian cruisers coaling from the German steamer Valesia off Cape Juby.

No Surprise

St. Petersburg, Aug. 25.—The announcement that the Askold and Grozovoi had disarmed is no surprise here. The authorities decided the matter a week ago only waiting for an agreement with China and the Japanese which would insure the protection of the vessels against the repetition of the Ryesshot incident at Chefoo.

Heavy Losses

Chefoo, Aug. 25.—The Russian advices state the Japanese attempt to capture the fort now at Port Arthur August 21 and 22 cost them ten thousand men, killed and wounded. The attack on Fort Elieshan resulted in a loss of three thousand. The port at Dalney is said to be filled with wounded.

Shell Entire Russian Line.

When the sun sank over the dismantled towers and battered walls within Port Arthur Wednesday night hundreds of Japanese guns were belching shells at close range into the citadel and harbor. The gunners had the range also of the line of forts and intrenchments forming the last defense of the citadel, in which Lieut. Gen. Stoessel and his brave Russians are trying to uphold the standard of the czar. The fire was terrific and destructive.

By morning, it was believed, the

SEE A BODY PLACED IN A BUGGY

Aver That Dr. Lightle and His Companion Disinterred the Corpse of Ed. Pitts, Taking It From the Cemetery in a Rig.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 25.—Kay Deever, and Dandridge Melroe of Searcy, the two young men who made affidavits that they witnessed the robbery of Ed Pitts' grave at Searcy, returned Wednesday from St. Louis, Mo., where they had been for several days. Both are about 25 years of age.

It is alleged in the affidavit that Dr. Lightle, Walter Gregory and possibly others, after the plans had been carefully laid and concocted, drove to the cemetery at dawn and proceeded to the grave of Ed Pitts. The two boys had seen them going toward the cemetery and, suspecting something, the affidavit says, shadowed them, bent upon the solution of the dark mystery attached to their actions.

Doctor Threatens Death.
Arriving at the grave, Dr. Lightle and his companions are said to have begun digging, when Gregory was heard to ask what they would do if they were to be seen.

Dr. Lightle is said to have replied that they would keep a close watch, and if they should be discovered they would kill the persons who saw them and put the bodies in the coffin from which they were to remove that of Ed Pitts. This frightened the boys from their vigil and they fled in the darkness.

ANGRY MOB ATTACK THE OGDEN BUGGY AT YARDS

The Noted Packer Is Forced To Get Inside Barricade, While Police Scatter the Mob.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Chicago, Ill., Aug. 25.—J. Ogden Armour while on the way to the stockyards this morning drove into a crowd of disorderly strikers whom the police were trying to force back from the yards' entrance. The presence of Armour enraged the strikers, yelling of "Stone him," as they crowded and threatened around the buggy. The police made a charge and clubbed the crowd and sent them flying in every direction. Mr. Armour lost no time getting inside the shelter of the fence. The packers held a meeting this morning to discuss the letter sent them by Mayor Harrison asking them to meet a committee of the city council to discuss the strike settlement.

The packers appointed a committee of three to confer with the peace committee of the city council at the city hall tomorrow. It strongly intimated that this effort to settle the strike will be more successful than before.

California Beans.—Mr. J. E. Skinner of this city has shown us a specimen of beans raised by him this season called the California bean. The pods grow from a foot to eighteen inches in height, and they are esteemed a very good article for the table when used as a string bean or for the purpose of making soup. Their blossom is a very pretty flower and very ornamental. They are a curiosity even if they were not good as an esculent.

Bully for the Water Witch Co., No. 2.—In the trial of fire engines which took place at Fond du Lac yesterday at the fireman's tournament, our gallant boys of Water Witch No. 2 bore off the prize among engines of her class for throwing the largest quantity of water in a given length of time. So they have taken the triumph and may justly feel proud of the triumph they have achieved. When the news of their success reached the city the engine bull was vigorously rung, and the stars and stripes, underneath which was a broom, was suspended over the house. We are glad at their success.

The removal of the ocean steamers that have allied between Milwaukee and Grand Haven to the last five years, from Milwaukee to Chicago, is a fact of some significance. Hereafter the boats are to ply between the latter city and Grand Haven, abandoning Milwaukee altogether.

A dispatch from St. Louis says that a large crowd of Missouri rebels will attend the Chicago convention. The delegation from the states is opposed to McClellan, and half of them would not vote for him if nominated.

Coming Attractions.

John C. Fisher's reputation as an elaborate producer is sure to be greatly enhanced after playgoers throughout the country get a glimpse of the magnificent manner in which he has staged and costumed "San Toy," the melodious and picturesque story of Chinese life, which will be presented in the principal cities this season under Mr. Fisher's personal direction. When "San Toy" was first brought to this country Augustin Day staged it, and while the Daily trademark always meant perfection in every detail, it is the judgment of those who are recognized as authorities on such subjects, that Mr. Fisher's production will eclipse the original. As the play will be set forth this season there is not a single atom in the way of scenery or costumes that was ever used before. Everything is absolutely new, and the scenery from the best New York studios and the costumes all imported from China.

VERDICT OF THE PARTY
From the report of the Committee on Credentials to the REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, which was unanimously adopted by that convention, June 25, 1904.

Your committee report it to be their final judgment that the convention which elected John O. Spooner, J. V. Quarles, J. W. Babcock and Emil Baensch as delegates at large, and their alternates at large, to this convention from the state of Wisconsin WAS THE REGULAR CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN WISCONSIN, and that the delegates elected by it are the regular elected delegates at large from the state of Wisconsin to the republican convention, and, as such, are entitled to seats in this convention.

A LA TOM JOHNSON
Tom Johnson and his laughable campaign in Ohio with an automobile and a tent and a corpse of badge sellers is to be repeated in Wisconsin minus the side show attractions. If you meet a dusty looking automobile on the road way and see it speeding along in the dim distance you can imagine that the administration is at work. That God's patient poor are to be educated to the fact that even though the state treasury is empty, that scandals fill almost every state office, that the capital is burned and it will take a million to rebuild it, the administration is finding time to ride about the county surrounded by a body guard of game wardens for your special benefit while you and others pay his salary to stay at Madison and direct the ship of state. Tom Johnson was beaten and his weird methods had much to do with it. Think well when you see the "yellow devil" speeding by your farm before you vote for such spectacular campaigning.

THAT GREAT SCARE.
It will be remembered that just before the caucuses last spring the press of the administration declared in glaring headlines with much type and a great waste of ink that there would be no taxes this year. That the governor had so financed the state that it was not necessary to make a heavy taxation to run the ship of state. It was bombastic in the extreme and the sequel comes when it is shown that the treasury has but a paltry six hundred thousand dollars left in the general fund and it will need eighteen thousand dollars, to say the least. The big balloon on which the governor shows "God's Patient Poor," the glowing letters of no taxes has collapsed and in its place the state is staring an empty treasury in the face. The great war fund collected under La Follette's term of office but which really should be credited back to Governor Scofield, who started the crusade against the national government, has been returned to the proper place and can not be used for the purposes the governor announced.

THAT KEMPFF AFFAIR.
It would seem that after Mr. Kempff has been exonerated by the trust specialists who examined his books and the guilty parties discharged from office that the governor would be good enough to allow the poor man to recall his resignation given under a pressure and let him continue his course unmolested. But no, there is a clamor for his scalp to hang on the totem pole of the other braves and doubtless before long this misguided gentleman will be duly led to the torture and deprived of his honor and office at one fell swoop and his scalp will go with others of the "faithful" to adorn the council chamber of the administration council chamber.

THE GREAT LOTTERIES.
Uncle Sam has been running a series of land lotteries during the past summer that would have delighted the officers of the Louisiana Lottery company in their palmiest days. What with the government fees, the grafters after their bit for registering for friends and the grafters who stole your money when the applicant reached the registration places, Uncle Sam has been in a fine business. The Dakotas have attained a name for grafting that they will not soon lose. While it is not their fault that almost every city in the country sent its worst to try and fleece the unsuspecting visitors still the stain remains and the number of citizens who will settle on the lands opened for homesteads will not make up for what was lost while the registration was in progress.

POOR GASAWAY DAVIS
It is too bad to bring up all the trivial enjoyments of Grandpa Davis and relate them to the public just because he has been mentioned for the vice presidency. Perhaps he did go to a dance and enjoy himself but where business is it if he did. He may have taken a long walk but it is safe to say he never misses his after dinner nap. Poor Grandpa after the November election he will be left in peace but it is too bad to disturb the reflections of the old gentleman in this rude and unseemly manner.

THE BLACK HAND.
New York is stirred to its center today by the actions of the Black Hand society among the Italian colonists of Gotham. They are undergoing a similar fight that New Orleans was forced to endure several years ago when the Mafia held sway in the Louisiana sea port. The latest murder as a direct result of the Black Hand should encourage the police to hunt the murderers down and punish them and thus end all chance of any further occurrences of a like nature.

STILL FIGHTING.
The democrats are still debating who they will nominate. Vilas and Peck are both mentioned for the governorship but they do not seem to be able to give away the rest of the nominations. Oshkosh will be the convention city and Oshkosh will endeavor to show the poor followers of the blind old donkey such a good time they will forget their troubles and think themselves at a picnic instead of a political funeral.

THAT DOG CATCHER.
The dog catcher is coming. If you have not paid your dog license insure and pay it. The law is behind the dog catcher and he will be backed up by the mighty arm that knows no wavering where right and wrong is concerned. Political pull will not count, so pay your dollar or two and look happy.

Mr. Watson said some pretty sharp and biting things about his old friends the democrats. Facts that the democrats would like to get away from but can not. Tom Taggart would like people to forget he is a gambler but every man who has lost his money in Taggart's gambling halls will remember it and tell every other man he meets.

Evidently Rock county must abide by the state tax commission's report and pay that assessment regardless of the real figures in the case all because the capital burned up and the figures were lost although lots of campaign material was saved by willing workers.

Even the New York Post begins to realize that they can not whitewash the aged Grandpa Davis sufficiently so that if he was elected he could preside with honor or dignity over the United States senate.

Millionaire Drake should pay his meat bills in these hard times. He should realize it is hard work to get meat for some people and not be too critical about parting with his money.

If the democrats are really trying to find some other man with a barrel to take Davis' place why not approach Russell Sage. He has the money and the age qualifications.

Men who get into trouble and the police courts and then want their names kept out of the paper should think of those things before they get into the clutches of the law.

One brilliant mind suggests as a campaign war cry that might secure the election of Roosevelt would be the platform: "The Panama Canal and An Interurban to Madison."

There is no question as to the legality of the actions of the administration is the eyes of the blind followers of the prophet. The great I AM constitutes the law.

Port Arthur still manages to hold out despite the fact that the newspapers have caused it to be surrendered at least a dozen times.

The governor has hired an automobile director in order to try and save the $55.55 cents charged by the railway.

Brain storms sometimes bring suits for the city if the sewers and gutters are not all in the best of shape when the rain comes.

Athletes seem to be a hobby with the governor. They have places offered them as fast as one falls vacant.

Rock river is a dirty old puddle at best although at times it is really beautiful.

An empty treasury means no goose for Thanksgiving.

PRESS COMMENT.

Washington (In.) Democrat:—one day we will run our paper as suggested by our friends just to see whether it wouldn't please more people than it does now.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Uncle Russell Sage's apparent pride in his reputation as the premier skinflint of the country is perhaps the most remarkable thing about him.

Seranton Tribune: There is no way of confirming the Nihilist assertion that the Russian heir is really a peasant child, substituted. But the Romanoff dynasty would not be the worse for a little fresh blood.

Chicago Inter Ocean: Four car loads of cigarettes were among the recent shipments to the Russian troops. There is a broad field for work for the Lacy Page Gaston in the far, far, East.

Oshkosh Times: It is hard to see how that man is making his money honestly who keeps an automobile in repair and has meat three times a day.

La Crosse Chronicle: Well, he can afford it—the czar of Russia can afford to welcome a baby to his household now and then; he gets a salary of $320,000 a month. Twins ought not scare the czar.

Minneapolis Tribune: Midsummer dullness in social news circles is relieved somewhat by stories that Alice Roosevelt is matching dimes and dancing the double shuffle at the summer resorts. We hope these reports are not a part of the campaign tactics of the enemy.

New Richmond Republican-Voice: Madison, hunters have just secured for their town a clock factory that will employ one hundred hands at the outset. This does not necessarily contain any lunch for other Wisconsin towns; we merely mention it as an item of news and as evidence of good faith.

Racine Journal: That Iowa idea of changing her municipal governments so that there shall be but three persons with one acting as chairman to conduct all city matters instead of a mayor and council as now, may spread if the thing works.

Cincinnati Enquirer: Down in Virginia there is a demand for a law prohibiting circus parades from being late, and requiring a real wild animal in every cage. While the legislation is about it additional justice might be accomplished by feeding a clown to each beast.

Superior Telegram: Millionaire James H. Hammond, the president of the Hammond Typewriter company, is oured on lawyers and plead his own case in New York the other day. He says he is done with the lawyers, and just because his attorney wanted a fee of $1,000 for winning a $3,000 suit for him.

Oshkosh Northwestern: Of course everybody knows that Governor La Follette has no hope for re-election whatever unless he can gain it by securing a lot of democratic voters to help place out his short supply of personal supporters. And the indications are that the democrats are not inclined to play the sucker act this year.

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: The story that Judge Parker can fling a dollar across the Hudson, make a dive and swim across and catch the dollar before it lights is a base invention of the enemy. It is Mr. Belmont who is catching the dollars and he only has to wade across Wall street to do it.

Milwaukee Journal: So Governor La Follette is going to make his campaign tour in an automobile. At last he is playing into the hands of the stalwarts. The sight of the machine will enrage the farmers; an auto will make the governor miss a majority of his engagements and distract his mind to the verge of madness; while the expense will break the campaign committee if it isn't backed by the Wells' estate. The "gov" has certainly slipped a cog.

Whitewater Register: The third-termers are relying upon a statute which provides that in case of two state conventions the one designated as the regular convention by the state central committee shall be regarded as the real convention. But this statute does not apply to the present Wisconsin case; there was only one convention at Madison, and the supreme court is asked to say whether the one which met at the gymnasium with a minority of the delegates or the one which met at the opera house with a majority of the delegates, was the real convention.

DECREASE IN PENSION ROLLS FOR FIRST TIME

Commissioner Ware's Report Shows a Net Shrinkage in Number of Veterans on the List Last Year.

Washington, Aug. 25.—The annual report of the pension commissioner for the year ended June 30, 1904, shows that 47,374 persons were added to the rolls and 49,157 dropped, a net decrease for the first time in the history of the department.

The appropriation for the year was $146,415,296 and the expenditures only $144,712,787, leaving a balance of $1,702,509.

Of the 47,374 persons added to the pension rolls 326 were by special act of congress, and of the 49,157 pensioners who were dropped death claimed 43,820, of whom 31,728 were soldiers, 30,071 being volunteers of the civil war.

The total number of pensioners on the rolls as covered by the report is 720,315 soldiers, 273,841 widows and dependents, and 606 army nurses.

The report refers to the order issued by the commissioner March 15 last in which age is made an evidence of disability, and says that in three and a half months of its operation only 8 per cent, or 28,806 out of 375,000 pensioners, have asked for increase under its terms. The report says the order introduces no new principle, and "is in the direct line of economy, as it certainly is in the line of precedent."

Less than 6 per cent of the appropriation of $1,500,000 was used to pay claimants under the order, the balance being turned back into the treasury.

BARNYARD MANURE.

Estimates of Its Value and Various Uses to Be Made of It.

By W. H. REAL, Office of Experiment Stations.

Barnyard manure is the most important manure of the farm and should be carefully saved and used. It represents fertility which is drawn from the soil and must be returned to it if productiveness is to be maintained. It not only enriches the soil with the nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash, but it also renders the stored up materials of the soil more available, improves the mechanical condition of the soil, makes it warmer and enables it to retain more moisture.

On the basis of prices charged for commercial fertilizers it is estimated that the average value of the manure annually produced by each horse or mule is $27, by each head of cattle $19, by each hog $12 and by each sheep $2. Probably less than half these values are actually realized in practice.

The urine is by far the most valuable part of the excreta of animals. It is especially rich in readily available nitrogen, which rapidly escapes into the air if special precautions are not taken to prevent its loss. It is also rich in potash, but deficient in phosphoric acid. It should, therefore, be used in connection with the solid dung, the one thus supplying the deficiencies of the other and making a more evenly balanced fertilizer.

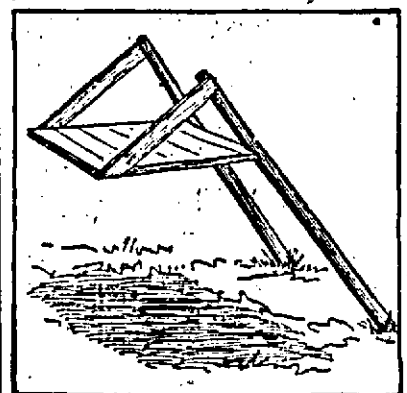

The disposition to be made of the manure of the farm, both fermented and unfermented, must be determined largely by the nature of the crop and soil. Where improvement of the mechanical condition of the soil is the principal object sought, fresh manure is best adapted for this purpose to heavy soils and well rotted manure to light soils. Where prompt action of the fertilizing constituents is desired, the best results will probably be obtained by applying fresh manure to the light soils, although excessive applications in this case should be avoided on account of the danger of "burning out" of the soil in dry seasons.

Fresh manure has a forcing effect and is better suited to early garden truck, grasses and forage plants than to plants grown for seed, such as cereals, or to fruits. Direct applications to root crops, such as sugar beets and potatoes, or to tobacco often prove injurious. The manure should be spread when carried to the field and not left in heaps to leach.

The rate of application must be determined by individual circumstances. As a rule, it is better to manure lightly and frequently than to apply a large amount at longer intervals.

Lower Rates On Money Orders

The high rates charged for money orders by the Express Companies and the Post Office have recently brought about the competition of Banks in that field throughout the United States. The money orders issued by banks are the uniform Bankers Money Orders of the Bankers Money Order Association of New York; whose orders are payable throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, The Hawaiian Islands, and Cuba, abroad, in the United Kingdom, Continental Europe, Northern Africa, and the Far East (China, Japan, India, Australia, and the Philippines.)

The rates on these money orders are lower than the Post Office and Express rates. At the same time the money orders are the safest means of sending money through the mail as receipts are given with the orders, for which duplicates are issued without any delay or inconvenience in case the original order is lost.

IN JANESVILLE,

The Merchants' and Mechanics' Savings Bank

has adopted the use of the Bankers Money Orders. The phenomenal growth of the system is evidence of the great advantages of the Bankers Money Orders both in price and convenience; so that now it has become only a question of a comparatively short time when the Money Order business of the country will be done by the Banks where payment is not refused on money orders through lack of funds as is only too frequently the case with the Express and Postal Money Orders.

DEMOCRATS ARE STILL GUESSING

COUNTY TICKET IS NOT YET DECIDED UPON.

VILAS OR PECK DISCUSSED

Chances Are Good for the Republican County Ticket Despite the Threats.

"County politics are quiet," said a leading democrat this afternoon. "Of course, there is a good deal of talk as to what will be done at the county convention next Saturday, but really I cannot say who will compose the ticket then named. I have heard talk of a deal having been made whereby the ticket would be made up of a mugwump pattern but whether this is so or not I cannot say. Several names for the different offices have been talked but I have not paid much attention to the gossip. When we get together will be time enough to choose the men to be voted for. What do I think of the prospects of winning out this fall? Well, I do not know. Some of the boys think that with the help of the La Follette republicans we ought to be able to elect just who we please. Maybe we can, but I doubt it. There are not enough of them in the county to really count and if the supreme court decides for the Cook ticket I do not see that we will be helped much as the average republican usually takes his medicine straight and the men who would vote against the republican ticket would not count much, as they are only the radicals of the party."

Talk Campaigning

"Yes, I have heard that they are working pretty hard against Senator Whitehead, but in my mind it would take a general upheaval one in which the whole state would be a whooping before he could be beaten. Yes, I was told that a canvas had been made of the county and that the men who made it claimed they had the senator beaten by over nine hundred but I do not believe it. I do think that the democrats have the best chance they had in years to carry the legislature and state, and I am not so sure they will not carry other states as well that were republican four years ago. However, in Rock county I do not think the prospects are as glowing for a democratic victory as they might be. If the La Follette men and some of our boys make a deal and divide the honors, putting a mugwump ticket in the field under the caption of democratic, I think they will lose lots of votes. By that, I mean, that I do not think the rank and file will be pleased to swallow the men who have fought them in the past on what is called a democratic ticket."

Some Discard

"Of course I will have to admit there is some discord in the county regarding the selection of Parker for president. The Bryan men are not pleased and these will be the ones who would be most liable to make a deal with the disgruntled republicans. As to who should be nominated for governor, I do not know as yet. They are talking of Vilas. Personally, I am much in favor of the senator. I know him, personally and have known him for years. I would like to see him the candidate but here the old Bryan trouble crops out. The Bryan men would be against him owing to the fact he voted for Buckner with a lot of others eight years ago, and in all probability voted for McKinley four years ago. However, this should not make any difference now the silver question is settled, but I suppose it will."

Peck Solid

"Ex-Governor Peck seems to have the majority of the votes thus far. Of course he is tainted by the silver element, but he has stuck by the party through thick and thin and the boys seem to think he would draw lots of republican votes through his personality. Of course that roster scandal in which Clarence Clark was mixed up in along with Peck might make some difference, but it happened so long ago and no one ever proved that Peck did not lose a fortune in the ill-fated Times so I think it ought to be forgotten. Of course, Peck's great drawback is that he is not a campaigner like La Follette. Vilas on the other hand, I think, is, and would make a better impression on the people than the ex-governor. However, we have until next Wednesday to decide this momentous question and lots may happen between now and then."

Not Pledged

"No, I have not heard that the county convention will be pledged to any one man for governor. I am sure they will endorse the St. Louis platform without any trouble. I have heard that present County Clerk Starr is desirous of becoming the democratic candidate and that it has been promised him. I have also heard that Gettle would like to be clerk of the court but I cannot say whether these are facts or not. Ira Fisher has been talked of for sheriff but I am not in favor of making any 'wholly alliance' with the La Follette men to wreck vengeance upon their former friends—the stalwarts. I do not say a combination will not be made but at present I do not know of one."

The funeral services over the remains of the late Robert Dobson were conducted by Rev. Vaughan, this morning at 9 o'clock from the family residence 155 South Main St. At the conclusion of the services the remains were taken to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul passenger station and shipped to Burlington, where the deceased's former home where interment will take place this afternoon.

BEET FACTORY IS BEING COMPLETED

Work Being Rushed on the Building Going Up in South End of the City.

Work on the Rock County Sugar company's plant is progressing as fast as workmen can put the framework in place and carpenters do their share of the construction. The tall chimney stands away above all in the surrounding country and has been completed. At the top is a little frilled work, but the structure looks secure and strong enough to stand the hardest wind storm that might hit in the vicinity of Janesville. Four stories of the building are now up. The majority of the structure will be four stories high although in some portions it will be only three. Four hundred and fifty men have been employed constantly on the works since the work began and Mr. Hapke went to Chicago the first of the week to employ more carpenters if possible to rush the interior work. The majority of the machinery is here and will be put in place as soon as the interior work is completed. The factory will be ready to receive beets as soon as the beets are ready for the factory.

OLD DWELLERS IN THE ROCK VALLEY

PLANNING BIG REUNION AT HON. NE-GAH PARK

ON TUESDAY OF NEXT WEEK

Hon. A. A. Jackson to Speak—Cornelius Buckley to Talk on Indians—Imperial Band Engaged.

Hon. Ne-Gah park will be the scene of a notable gathering next Tuesday. Pioneers from the Illinois counties of Boone and Winnebago, and the Wisconsin county of Rock, will unite in a big reunion of the old settlers of the Rock River valley. The pioneers will be expected to take along their luncheons and provide their cups for the coffee which is to be made on the grounds. There will be tables and chairs for 800.

Music and Addresses

Joel B. Dow will be master of ceremonies and Hon. R. K. Walsh of Rockford and Hon. A. A. Jackson of Janesville, president of the Rock County Old Settlers' society, will be the speakers of the day. The Imperial band has been engaged for the occasion and will provide the music for dancing both in the afternoon and evening.

Altogether the gathering will be a remarkable one in every respect. Seated on the platform in the afternoon will be a group of the real fathers of the valley, furnishing a picturesque setting around which the other old-timers will gather.

Burdick of Beloit, now 101 years old, William Grives of Avon who has passed his ninety-first milestone, Mrs. Mary Hunt of Beloit who is now 101, and many others who are witnesses of the twilight of a century will be induced to lend their presence to the occasion.

Old Indian History

One of the features of the meeting will be the talk on Indian lore to be delivered by ATTY. Cornelius Buckley of the Line City. Mr. Buckley is a recognized authority on the subject, having written some illuminating treatises on the Indians of the northwest. He will tell of the red men who occupied this garden valley before the coming of the paleface, recounting their mode of life, their sports and pastimes, and the battles waged between the tribes.

The interurban cars will run on a half hour schedule throughout the day. In case of rain the picnic will be postponed to Wednesday, the day following.

MUCH TROUBLE IN SECURING POUND

Dog Catcher Drafiel Has Not Yet Gotten to Actual Work of Capturing the Untagged.

William Drafiel, the official dog catcher, is having considerable difficulty in securing a pound. He had expected to secure the basement under the Saxton carpenter shop near the city hall but the owner has experienced a change of heart on the subject. It was reported on the streets this morning that Mr. Drafiel had taken "Squint" Hiller into partnership and that they had made a raid, rounding up some twenty canines. Neither Mr. Drafiel nor Mr. Hiller could be found at their homes this afternoon. At the former's residence it was declared that the Woodruff stripping rooms on Highland avenue had been secured as a pound but the parties with whom the dog catcher has never not aware that day. In case of rain the picnic will be postponed to Wednesday, the day following.

EDDIE FAY LIVING VERY QUIET LIFE

Makes No Complaints at the County Jail, Does Not Smoke, and Spends Time Reading.

Eddie Fay, the alleged postoffice robber, who was brought to this city from Madison several weeks ago for fear that he might escape from the Capital city institution, is meeting out a placid and secluded life at the county jail. He sees no one but the officers when they take him his meals and spends all of his time reading the newspapers and the best magazines with which he is provided through the funds sent him by friends in Chicago. Periodically John Ryan of that city visits the jail and sees to it that all his reasonable wants are gratified. Fay does not use tobacco in any form and from all appearances is a model of respectability as well as a man of considerable education and refinement.

MONEY MADE IN THE DOG FISH

Said To Be Caught at Lake Koshkonong and Sold in the East as Salmon.

Janesville fishermen at Lake Koshkonong, Waukesha and Kegonsa who catch carp and dog fish should not be in a hurry to throw away their catch, for if the statement of J. E. Whitcomb, a Belvidere business man, is to be taken as a criterion, money awaits these same fishermen. Mr. Whitcomb has just returned from a three weeks' stay at Lake Koshkonong, near Fort Atkinson, and says that German carp and dog fish are being sold out of that lake by the ton by a firm which has the contract from the state to clear the lakes of the offensive carp and dog fish and that the fish are being shipped to New York, where it is asserted, they are canned and put on the market as salmon. The sellers use a steam tug and a heavily weighted seine nearly a mile long and often pull in over 5,000 pounds at a haul. The game fish are thrown back into the water.

Timely Sporting Doings

David Gaul, the Philadelphia Swimmer, to Compete at St. Louis—The Spalding Trophy For Olympic Games Winners—Talk of the Hour.

David Gaul of Philadelphia has performed so sensationally in swimming contests of late that he must be considered a formidable candidate for high honors in the international championship races soon to be held in St. Louis.

Gaul is a member of the Philadelphia Swimming Club. He is just eighteen years of age, yet he is already a remarkable swimmer. Born at Lafayette, Pa., in a house separated from the water's edge only by the Schuylkill towpath, he took to swimming while yet in his teens. The fact is he could not help it. All the family are swimmers, his older brothers both having been champions and prize winners.

As a small boy he showed competitive spirit before he knew anything about form and racing strokes, and while yet swimming "dog fashion" he raced older lads one after another until there were no boys his age or even older in his class. But even then the experts at the racing quarters so popular among local swimmers did not take the boy seriously, and it was only two summers ago that Dr. J. K. Shell, the University of Pennsylvania coach, who is a close observer of swimmers and their action, put the lad on the watch for fifty yards and predicted that he could then, although not yet sixteen years of age, beat any man in the swimming club at Lafayette.

That Dr. Shell's prediction was right was borne out last year at Travers, N. Y., where Davey ran away from the N. Y. swimmers in the 100 yards novice race in the remarkable time of 1:08. But even then the Gothamites thought the boy would be easy in an open event against top notch men, so Fred Wenck and Edgar H. Adams were sent over for the Sackett cup, an annual competition held by the Philadelphia swimmers and won there will be the Spalding trophy for the club, school or college that scores the greatest number of points. The competition for possession of this cup promises to be keen. Five clubs will battle for it—the New York A. C., New York City, Greater New York Irish A. A., Milwaukee A. C., Chicago A. A. and the Missouri A. A. of St. Louis. These clubs have very large teams. The three western clubs have secured all of the crack college athletes of the west, and the two New York clubs will have on their teams all of the crack eastern college men who are residents of the Metropolitan district. The count will be 5 points for firsts, 3 for seconds, 2 for thirds and 1 for fourths.

The cup stands nearly two feet in height and is wrought in solid sterling silver, with graceful handles of conventional style to match the general form, which is carried out in a strong, bold way. On the front is set in relief a Grecian athlete designed composition, enclosed in a laurel wreath of variegated gold effect, with a gold double winged Mercury foot set upon same. On the second side is the wording, "LOUISIANA PURCHASE EXPOSITION, ST. LOUIS, 1904." On the third side is inscribed the following: "Presented by A. O. Spalding." The trophy rests upon an oblong base and represents an ideal prize for the purpose for which it is to be presented. The prize is valued at $500.

Young Corbett announced recently that his contest with Jimmy Britt would not be decided until next December. The champion declared that this arrangement was made a few days ago and that there will be no further change in the date. ## CARRY AWAY IRON SAFE TO SECURE PLUNDER

Chicago Burglars Wind Up Expedition by Removing Strongbox to Prairie and Shattering It.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—Three burglars early in the morning entered the home of Frank M. Hoffman and after ransacking the house and taking what they could find of value carried a small iron safe to a prairie, where they blew it open with nitroglycerin.

The police of the Warren avenue station, where the robbery was reported, do not know what was taken or what the safe contained, as the Hoffman men are at their summer home in the east. The battered safe was discovered by two boys.

The burglars entered the house by forcing a window in the rear. They pulled out all the drawers and ransacked the whole house. After picking up what silverware they could discover they went upstairs to Mr. Hoffman's room. There they discovered a safe in which Mr. Hoffman kept his valuables. They pulled it out into the hall, let it slide down the stairs to the first floor and carried it away. They left the front door open. A large French mirror, which stood at the foot of the steps, was broken when the burglars slid the safe down.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS IN FAVOR

Kansas Cities Begin Movement to Divide Whites and Negroes.

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 25.—The Kansas association of cities of the first and second class has adopted a resolution in favor of maintaining separate schools for negro and white pupils. The resolution stated that the race question had grown so serious in Kansas as to make some action necessary. Steps were taken to bring the matter before the next legislature. A committee was appointed to draft a law to be submitted to the legislature and money was raised to maintain a strong lobby to work for the bill. A vigorous campaign in favor of the law will be waged in all portions of the state. It will become an issue in the next election, as all candidates for the legislature will be asked to pledge themselves.

Decoyed Rat into Trap and Finished It at Leisure.

"A weasel is a wizard as well as a fighter, and often wins his battles by strategy," said Emmet Wolfe of Mississippi. "I was recently in a fishing camp that was near a large stack of lumber. It seemed that a large number of rats inhabited the cool crevices under the lumber pile, and one day a weasel put in its appearance. We had the pleasure of seeing a battle royal every day for several days, and by and by the weasel had killed every rat in the colony except one which was nearly as large as a cat.

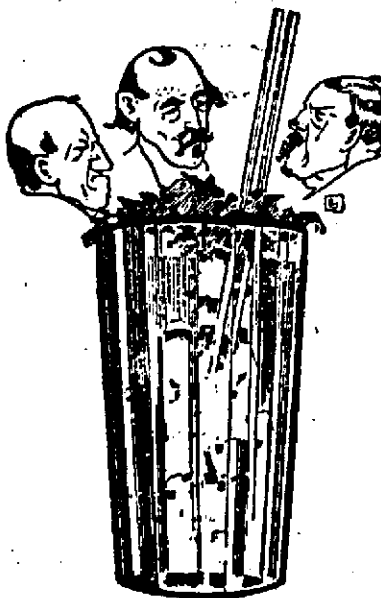

"They fought several times a day, and the weasel always got the worst of it. One day we noticed it industriously digging a hole under the woodpile, and thought little of it. A little after we saw it challenge the rat to battle, and as soon as the fight began to warm up the weasel suddenly turned tail and sneaked to the hole like all possessed. The rat followed in hot pursuit, and both disappeared in the mouth of the weasel's hole. It was only a twinkling until the weasel reappeared, and flashed into the hole again.

"We watched a long time and neither animal appeared. Finally we moved the wood and dug out the weasel's hole. We found the rat dead—and the weasel had dug itself out another way. The weasel had trapped the rat and killed it at leisure, the hole being too small at one end for the rat to escape, which the weasel knew all the while."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

First High Pews in Churches.

During the reign of William and Mary in England a worthy bishop complained to the latter that the ladies of the court were wont to fix their eyes on their neighbors rather than on him during his discourse. It apparently never occurred to the divine that the fault might lie in the sermons themselves.

By consent of the Queen high pews were introduced to prevent wandering eyes. "As for the young ladies for whose spiritual welfare they were devised," says a writer, "their indignation was only surpassed by the rage of their admirers." From that time high pews were very commonly placed in churches.

For fifty years it has not been occupied, except as a storehouse, and is rapidly going to pieces.

It was in this house that Gen. John Stark took his breakfast the morning of the battle of Bennington, after leaving his camp and marching to meet the British forces.

St. MARK, IX.

35 And he went down, and sat on the ground, and said unto them, If any man desire to be with me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them, and said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name, receiveth me; and whosoever receiveth me, receiveth me that sendeth me.

37 And John answered him, saying, Master, we have seen thee do signs and wonders in thy name, and we follow thee not, say, and we will be with thee, because he followeth thee not.

38 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

by the New York Athletic club for six years in succession. But the cup stayed in Philadelphia this time, Gaul delighting the talent and his club mates by getting the trophy.

Young Gaul's swimming is all the more remarkable from the fact that he works at night in a nearby paper mill, his shift being much longer hours than the day workers'; so he has but little time to prepare or train, yet he has covered fifty yards in the fast time of thirty seconds, which is faster by a second than the record, and has done 100 yards with a rope turn in 1 minute 8 seconds this season.

His favorite racing stroke is the "trudgeon" or double overarm method, now used by all the fast swimmers of the world. This advanced stroke is a combination of the side stroke leg kick and the double overarm curve. It is very fast because there is a continuous positive action at work all the time without any negative action or loss of leeway.

The prizes that are to be given to the winners of the different events at the Olympic games at the world's fair, St. Louis, are without doubt the most valuable prizes ever offered. Besides the handsome and valuable medals and cups that are to go to the winners, that he would prefer not to fight until December. About this time the racing season at San Francisco will be in full swing and the fight will attract a larger crowd.

In the meantime it is Corbett's intention to take things easy. He will go to Denver to see his folks, where he will remain several months. He intends to have a good time, but he will also be careful about his health and condition. Most every day, Corbett declares, he will indulge in plenty of exercise, so as not to take on too much weight. Regarding a match with Jabez White, Corbett said:

"If the Englishman comes to this country I will fight him, but under no circumstances will I consider a mill across the water. When I was in England a few weeks ago I gave White a chance to face me. But he made a monumental bluff and I called things off. If he comes here and will bet a tily sum on the outside I will fight him. We ought to draw well in San Francisco. Of course I cannot face him until after my mill with Britt is decided."
